

Capital Title re-opens with a new team

The Capital Title office in the Kingwood-Atascocita area is open for business.

Capital Title is proud to announce Kevin Clark as part of the Capital Title team in Houston. Clark comes to Capital Title from First American Title. He began his career in the real estate business more than 13 years ago as a loan officer in Kingwood.

Clark brings 10 years of title industry experience and expertise to his position as vice president of the Houston Division.

While working to open new offices throughout Greater Houston, he will initially focus on expanding the presence of Capital Title in the Kingwood/Atascocita/Humble area, having already recruited a team of professionals to staff the Kingwood-Atascocita office.

Sandy Lee, a native Texan who has been a resident of Kingwood for 10 years, is already in place as one of the office's two escrow officers. She is qualified to handle both residential and commercial closings.

Also joining the team at the Kingwood-Atascocita office as an escrow officer is Kendra Cox. With more than 19 years of experience in the real estate industry, Cox brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to Capital Title.

Amy McIntee, escrow assistant, has more than 25 years of professional experience working with clients, having been employed in a variety of industries, including public relations, sports information, hotel management, computer software contract compliance, retail sales, nonprofit development and real estate. She brings a unique combination of expertise to the Kingwood-Atascocita team.

See BRIEFS, Page 9A

BRIEFS

Continued from Page 7A

Rounding out the Kingwood-Atascocita team is escrow assistant Cindy Reynolds. She joins the Capital Title family as a knowledgeable title industry professional. With more than 30 years of experience in the escrow closing process, she has worked at several major title companies, most recently Stewart Title Company in Kingwood.

"I know that customer service is the name of the game in the title industry," Clark said. "Each time someone walks through the door of the Capital Title office, our goal is for them to feel at home, like part of the family."

Capital Title of Texas is located at 19100 W. Lake Houston Parkway, Suite 103, just south of FM 1960. Plans are being made for an official grand opening celebration later this year.

For more information about Capital Title and its services, log on to www.ctot.com.